How We Will Calculate Your Balance for Purchases: We use a method called “average daily balance (including new purchases).”

Loss of Introductory APR: We may end your introductory APRs and apply the Penalty APR if you make a late payment.

How We Calculate Variable APRs: We calculate each variable APR by adding a margin (interest percentage) to the value of an index. The index we use is the “Prime Rate” of interest appearing in the “Money Rates” section of The Wall Street Journal published on the 20th day of the month preceding the first day of each billing cycle or, if The Wall Street Journal is not published on such date, the next day on which such Prime Rate is published. A change in the index will result in a change to your variable APRs. For example, if your margin for purchases, which is based on your creditworthiness, is 10% and the value of the index (the Prime Rate) is 8.50%, your APR for purchases would be 18.50%. If the value of the index later increases from 8.50% to 8.75%, your APR for purchases would increase to 18.75%. The variable APRs disclosed above are accurate within 30 days prior to the date these disclosures are provided to you.

Allocation of Payments: Allocation of your payments will be at our discretion, and generally that means that we will apply payments to balances with lower APRs before balances with higher APRs. However, any payment you make in excess of the minimum payment due will be allocated to balances with higher APRs before balances with lower APRs.

CHANGES TO YOUR CREDIT CARD ACCOUNT: The terms of your credit card account, including APRs and fees, are subject to change at any time and for any reason permitted by applicable law and the credit card agreement that will be sent with your credit card. We will notify you of any change if required by applicable law. Changes to your APR may include changing your APR from non-variable to variable, from variable to non-variable, or to a higher APR.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each borrower who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver’s license or other identifying documents.

Additional Terms and Conditions that Apply to your Application and Credit Card Account

In this application, the terms “you” or “your” mean each applicant for credit. If this is a joint application for credit, the person submitting this application certifies that he/she is authorized to submit this application, certifies to the accuracy of any statements made herein and agrees to all terms and conditions of this application, on behalf of each co-applicant.

You are applying to obtain credit from PNC Bank, National Association (N.A.) (“we,” “our,” or “us”). You understand that we are not obligated to grant you credit, and may retain your application whether or not credit is granted.

You certify that all information in, and with respect to, your application is accurate and complete, that you are of legal age to enter into contracts in the state in which you reside and that no bankruptcy proceeding is in progress or anticipated that involves you. You also represent that you have not submitted, nor will submit, any application for credit to another lender prior to our consideration of your application.

You agree that we may request consumer credit reports about you for evaluating your application and in the future for reviewing your credit card account credit limits, for credit card account renewal, for servicing and collection purposes, and for other legitimate purposes associated with your credit card account.

You also agree that we may verify, with other creditors, credit reporting agencies, employers, and other third parties, including through records maintained by federal and state agencies (including any state motor vehicle department), your employment, income, address and all other information that you have provided. You waive any rights of confidentiality under applicable law that you may have in that information.

If your application is approved, a credit card will be issued to you. We also will send you a credit card agreement at that time.

Your credit card agreement is governed by (i) federal laws and regulations and (ii) the laws of Delaware to the extent Delaware laws are not preempted by federal laws or regulations and without regard to conflict of law principles.

If you do not like the terms of the credit card agreement sent to you with your credit card, you can rescind your credit card agreement by not using your credit card account and contacting us at 1-800-558-8472. If you use the credit card account, you agree to the terms and conditions of the credit card agreement and you will be liable (for joint accounts, individually and jointly liable) for all amounts owing on your credit card account.

Balance Transfer Instructions:

1. Fill out the balance transfer request form completely. The request form must include the exact amount of each transfer (not "all" or "in full"). Balance transfer requests that are incomplete or illegible will not be processed. The payment and transfer of balances is subject to approval by us and we may, in our sole discretion, deny a balance transfer request.
2. You may not transfer a balance that is less than $200. The amount of your balance transfer(s), plus any applicable fees, cannot exceed your credit limit and your available credit limit will be reduced by the total amount of each balance transfer plus any applicable fees. When determining whether the amount of the balance transfer you are requesting would cause you to exceed your credit limit at the time your request is made, we consider the amount of interest that will accrue on your account during the first billing cycle as a result of the balance transfer. Balance transfer requests to individuals or for cash will not be processed. There is no grace period for balance transfers. If you transfer a balance and also make purchases, if you do not pay your entire balance in full at the end of the first billing cycle you may lose your grace period for new purchases. Balance transfers do not earn rewards. Recently disputed charges should not be included in balance transfer requests. By transferring amounts in dispute, your billing rights may be forfeited.

3. In order to allow time for you to receive your credit card agreement and other important information, including disclosure of the rates and fees that apply to your account, we will not begin to process your balance transfer, or post the balance transfer to your account, until at least 13 days following account opening. Any interest on your balance transfer begins on the day the balance transfer is posted to your PNC Bank credit card account. If, after you receive your credit card agreement, disclosures and other important account information sent with your credit card, you decide you do not want us to process your balance transfer request, you may cancel the balance transfer by calling us at 1-800-558-8472, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, within 13 days following account opening. Continue to make at least your minimum monthly payments on the accounts from which you are transferring balances until you verify that the balance transfers are completed. You are responsible for any amounts remaining unpaid on those accounts and must notify each creditor of each account you wish to close.
4. Balance transfers from any other account with us or any of our affiliates will not be accepted.
5. All balance transfers are subject to the terms and conditions set out in this offer and in your credit card agreement.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION THROUGH ARBITRATION:

Your credit card agreement will include an arbitration provision. This means that if you have a claim and we are unable to resolve it informally, you or we may elect to resolve it by individual binding arbitration. If a claim is arbitrated, it will not be heard by a court or a jury. Also, the claim will proceed as an individual action, and neither you nor we will have the right to participate in a class action in court. You have the right to opt out of the arbitration process by providing timely notice to us. Please refer to the Arbitration Provision located in section 9 of your credit card agreement for complete details.

JURY TRIAL WAIVER NOTICE:

Your credit card agreement contains a Jury Trial Waiver that applies to any dispute that is not arbitrated. Under the Jury Trial Waiver, you and we agree to waive any right to trial by jury in the event of litigation between us. This is only a summary of some of the features of the Jury Trial Waiver. Please be sure to read the entire credit card agreement carefully.
