Four Follow-On Investments:

During the year, we also helped finance add-on acquisitions for four portfolio companies.

Successful Exit:

Additionally, we successfully realized our investment in Dickinson Fleet Services during the year.

New Hires:

PNC Erievew Capital also expanded its team with the hiring of Bill Boyer as a Senior Associate and Braeden Quast as an Associate.

Prior to joining PNC Erievew Capital as a Senior Associate in March 2020, Bill worked as a middle-market investment banker at EdgePoint Capital Advisors, where he executed M&A transactions in diverse industries, including healthcare, manufacturing, and infrastructure services. He started his career as a financial due diligence advisor at Cohen & Co., a regional CPA firm. Bill earned a Master of Accountancy and Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Case Western Reserve University.

In January 2021, Braeden Quast joined PNC Erievew as an Associate. Braeden previously worked in the Investment Banking division of Deutsche Bank in New York City, where he executed various capital raises and leveraged buyouts. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Middlebury College.

Looking Forward in 2021:

As we enter our Firm's 42nd year in business, the PNC Erievew team remains committed to providing our investment partners, management teams and portfolio companies with experience, continuity and flexibility that is unique in our market. We are excited to continue investing alongside our existing long-term sponsor relationships and look forward to developing new relationships with middle-market private equity sponsors, family offices, independent sponsors and management teams. We thank you for your support in 2020 and look forward to 2021.
