PNC Erievue Capital Celebrates 300th Platform with Investment in Proceed

PNC Erievue Capital recently completed an equity co-investment in Proceed (the “Company”), an Align Capital Partners platform, to support the Company’s recapitalization via a single asset continuation vehicle. The transaction marks PNC Erievue’s 300th platform investment.

Align Capital Partners acquired Counsel Press in October 2023 and rebranded the Company as Proceed last year after completing twelve add-on acquisitions. The platform is anchored by the Company’s long-standing leadership position in outsourced appellate services, serving thousands of litigators with trusted expertise. Align has worked alongside senior management to broaden Proceed’s capabilities into e-filing, service of process and dispute management, while continuing to invest in technology that supports clients across the full dispute lifecycle.

About Proceed

Proceed is a leading nationwide provider of technology-enabled legal services and expert guidance. The Company has evolved into a national, multi-dimensional platform operating across the dispute lifecycle. Proceed delivers e-filing, service of process, dispute management and appellate services with precision, operational excellence and technology-enabled efficiency. Proceed empowers legal teams to navigate complex matters with speed, accuracy and confidence.
