

THE SPENDING DIET>LIVE

Use the Expense Tracker to write down all of your spending for one week. Check out the "Should I Buy It Checklist" before you buy, to help you make the most of your money.

To Get Started:

- 1. Write the date in the space provided.
- Write each purchase and amount in the spaces provided. This could be gas, movie tickets or anything you have purchased. Be sure to write it all down, even small purchases can add up fast!
- If you want, you can write the type of payment you used, whether it was cash, check, check card or other.
- Total your daily spending. When you have a week or more of spending noted, you can start to look for patterns and areas you may want to cut back.
- Compare your actual spending against your monthly budget or spending plan. Look for areas where you may have overspent or ways you can save.

Do I need it?

Maybe:

I could convince myself that I need it...Go home and sleep on it!

No: That was quick! Put that money into saving for GOALS.

YES:

So, you do want it and you do need it but do you already have something like it?

YES: If so, you probably don't need another one.

IF YES: Is it REALLY worth what they are charging?

"Are you interested in the brand name or the item itself?" Can I find it somewhere else cheaper? Being a savvy shopper is always in style.

NO: Well, if you really have nothing like it, ask yourself —

"Is it well-made?"

"Will it last a long time?"

"Will it go out-of-style or will you get sick of it?"

"Will it help you reach your long-term GOALS?"

IF YES to all:

Is it expense-worthy?

"Do you want to trade the hours of your life working just to own this?

SHOULD I BUY IT?
