ANNOUNCEMENT OF ADDITIONAL CAPITAL INVESTMENT IN EASTERN VAULT

PNC Mezzanine Capital is pleased to announce its recent $12.7 million add-on investment of subordinated debt and equity to support Eastern Vault Company's ("Eastern Vault") acquisition of Dellinger Precast, Inc. ("Dellinger"). Dellinger is an ideal fit for Eastern Vault given Dellinger's complementary product offerings and adjacent geographic footprint. PNC Mezzanine Capital is excited to continue its support of Cornerstone Capital Partners and Eastern Vault by providing capital for this highly strategic acquisition.

Brian Struble, President of Eastern Vault, commented, "We are thrilled to bring Eastern Vault and Dellinger together which continues our strategy of becoming a regional leader to better serve our existing and new customers. Both PNC Mezzanine Capital and Cornerstone Capital Partners continue to be valuable business partners by providing capital and strategic guidance for Eastern Vault. We look forward to continuing our strong relationship."

ABOUT EASTERN VAULT

Established in 1970 in Princeton, West Virginia, Eastern Vault is a leading manufacturer of highly engineered, precast, pre-stressed and concrete block products. More specifically, Eastern Vault's broad portfolio of concrete products encompasses highly-engineered pre-stressed concrete beams used in bridge construction and precast manholes, box culverts, vaults, open topped drains and various other precast products for all types of construction, utility and other "mission critical" projects.
