PNC Mezzanine Capital Announces Investment in Industrial Valve Sales & Service

PNC Mezzanine Capital is pleased to announce its recent $23.5 million investment of subordinated debt and equity to complete the acquisition of Industrial Valve Sales & Service ("IVS" or "Company"). PNC Mezzanine Capital, Five Point Capital, and KCM Capital Partners are excited to support experienced industry executive, Jim Richard, and the IVS management team to significantly expand the Company's service and distribution capabilities throughout the Southeastern United States. PNC MC plans to continue backing the Company's organic growth initiatives and strategic acquisitions to expand the platform's geographic territory and service capabilities.

Jim Richards, CEO of IVS, added, "Along with the entire IVS management team, I am pleased to partner with PNC Mezzanine Capital, Five Points Capital and KCM Capital Partners in order to embark upon a focused acquisition strategy in the industrial maintenance space. PNC Mezzanine Capital has proven to be flexible, thoughtful, and partnership oriented investor during the diligence and closing process for IVS, and given their experience supporting consolidation strategies and ability to continue investing in the business, we look forward to partnering with them moving forward."

Robert Codol, Managing Director at PNC Mezzanine Capital, added, "We are excited to have the opportunity to partner with Jim Richard, Five Points Capital and KCM Capital Partners to begin a highly actionable organic and acquisitive growth strategy with IVS. We look forward to leveraging our experience and investing in the industrial maintenance space to support the talented team at IVS and to serve as a value-added partner in the company's growth."

ABOUT INDUSTRIAL VALVE SALES & SERVICE

Founded in Mobile, Alabama in 1974, IVS is a leading provider of mission-critical valve repair services and replacement product sales across the Southeastern U.S. IVS specializes in the on going inspection, maintenance, and repair of safety valves for a diversified blue chip customer base comprised mainly of large industrial, power, paper, and energy companies. The Company provides in-shop and field based inspection and repair capabilities along with the sale of new or refurbished valves and related parts. IVS technicians are available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year in order to ensure their customer's plants remain up and running, and its dedication and customer focus has resulted in loyal and long term relationships for many of its clients.
