3 USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

3.1 We may use or disclose the personal information we collect about California consumers for one or more of the following business purposes:

- To fulfill or meet the reason for which the information was provided. For example, if you, your employer or another entity with whom we do business, share your name and contact information to request a financial product or ask a question about our products or services, we will use that personal information to respond to your inquiry. 3.2 We will not collect additional categories of personal information or use the personal information we collected for materially different, unrelated, or incompatible purposes without providing you notice.

4 SHARING PERSONAL INFORMATION

4.1 We may disclose your personal information to a third party for a business purpose. When we disclose personal information for a business purpose, we enter a contract that describes the purpose and requires the recipient to both keep that personal information confidential and not use it for any purpose except performing the contract.

- Government or regulatory authorities

4.4 In the preceding twelve (12) months, we have not sold any personal information.

5 YOUR RIGHTS AND CHOICES

5.1 The CCPA provides consumers with specific rights regarding their personal information. This section describes your CCPA rights and explains how to exercise those rights.

5.2 Access to Specific Information and a Copy of Personal Information

You have the right to request that we disclose certain information to you about our collection and use of your personal information over the past 12 months and to request a copy of the specific pieces of personal information that we have collected about you in the prior 12 months (collectively, referred to as your “access” right). Once we receive and confirm your verifiable consumer request, we will disclose to you:

- The categories of personal information we collected about you.
- The categories of sources for the personal information we collected about you.
- Our business or commercial purpose for collecting or selling that personal information.
- The categories of third parties with whom we have shared or share that personal information.
- The categories of personal information we disclosed or shared with a third party for a business purpose.
- The specific pieces of personal information we collected about you (also called a data portability request).
- The categories of third parties to whom the consumers’ personal information has been sold and the specific categories of personal information sold to each category of third party (if applicable).

5.3 Deletion Request Rights

You have the right to request we delete any of your personal information we collected from you and retained, subject to certain exceptions. Once we receive and confirm your verifiable consumer request, we will delete (and direct our service providers to delete) your personal information from our records, unless an exception applies.

We may deny your deletion request if an exception applies, such as regulatory obligations or required for servicing the account.

5.4 Do-Not-Sell Rights

California residents also have the right to opt-out of the sale of their personal information by us. As noted above, we do not sell personal information about California residents.

5.5 Exercising Access, Data Portability, and Deletion Rights

To exercise the access, data portability, and deletion rights described above, please submit a verifiable consumer request (as described more fully below) to us by either:

- Calling us at 1-888-PNC-BANK (1-888-762-2265).
- Visiting pnc.com/privacy.
Only you, or a person registered with the California Secretary of State who you authorize to act on your behalf, may make a verifiable consumer request related to your personal information. You may also make a verifiable consumer request on behalf of your minor child.

You may only make a verifiable consumer request for access or data portability twice within a 12-month period. The verifiable consumer request must:

- Provide sufficient information that allows us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected personal information or an authorized representative.
- Describe your request with sufficient detail that allows us to properly understand, evaluate, and respond to it.

However, we cannot respond to your request or provide you with personal information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm that the personal information relates to you. Making a verifiable consumer request does not require you to create an account with us.

We will only use personal information provided in a verifiable consumer request to verify the requestor’s identity or authority to make the request.

5.6 Response Timing and Format

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request for access to personal information within 45 days of receiving it. If we require more time (up to 90 days), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing.

We will deliver our written response by mail or electronically, at your option.

The response we provide will also explain the reasons we cannot comply with a request, if applicable.

5.7 Non-Discrimination

California consumers have the right to exercise their access, deletion and other rights without discrimination, and to receive transparent disclosures about any incentives a business offers them with regard to the collection, use and disclosure of their personal information.

Discrimination may exist where a business takes or suggests that it will take the following actions in response to a consumer exercising rights under the CCPA, unless doing so is reasonably related to the value provided to the consumer by the consumer’s data:

- Deny access to or use of goods or services.
- Charge different prices or rates for goods or services, including through granting discounts or other benefits, or imposing penalties.
- Provide a different level or quality of goods or services.
