

INTERVIEW

There's no doubt about it, securing a job is a competitive process. In fact, PNC often receives many resumes per open job. However, not everyone is invited to interview.

PNC interviews are conducted by phone, in person, or a combination of both. The length and number of interviews will vary by position. Your recruiter will provide you with information about the process to better equip you with what to expect.

Explore this section for tips on how to prepare for your interview.