REV-1832 IN (EX) 11-19

Pennsylvania Department of Revenue

Instructions for REV-1832

1099-MISC Withholding Exemption Certificate

GENERAL INFORMATION

Tax withholding is required on certain payments of nonemployee compensation, business income and lease payments made to nonresidents.

Tax withholding is required on payments that exceed $5,000 annually. Refer to Informational Notice Personal Income Tax 2017-01, for additional information about this withholding.

PURPOSE OF FORM

Use the REV-1832, 1099-MISC Withholding Exemption Certificate, to determine the residency status of individuals, estates or trusts or to identify the type of entity for determining whether Pennsylvania personal income tax withholding is required on payments of nonemployee compensation or lease payments, such as rents, royalties, bonus payments, damage payments, delay rents or other payments pursuant to a lease.

WHO MUST COMPLETE

The payee completes the REV-1832 and provides a copy to the payor. Payors must provide the REV-1832 to all payees for the payees to complete if the payor is not going to withhold on the payments to the payee.

FORM INSTRUCTIONS

SECTION I

PAYOR INFORMATION

The payor must enter their name, address and federal employer identification number (FEIN) in the appropriate spaces provided on the form.

SECTION II

PAYEE INFORMATION

Payees must enter their name, address and Social Security number or FEIN in the appropriate spaces provided on the form. Disregarded entities should use the home address of the single owner.

SECTION III

EXEMPTION REASONS

The payee must complete this section. A payee may select only one reason for being exempt from the withholding requirement.

Individual – PA Resident

Mark the oval if you are a Pennsylvania resident individual.

Trust - PA Resident

Mark the oval if you are the fiduciary of a trust established by a Pennsylvania resident at the time of death or a trust that was established by operation of a trust agreement by a Pennsylvania resident at the time the trust was formed and business income, rents or lease payments from the payor will be reported on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, of the trust.

Estate – PA Resident

Mark the oval if you are a personal representative in charge of an estate for a decedent who was a Pennsylvania resident at the time of death and business income, rents or lease payments from the payor will be reported on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, of the estate.

Not Subject to PA Income Tax

Mark the oval if you are not subject to Pennsylvania personal income tax. Reasons for not being subject to tax may include:

- Payee is a corporation;
- Payee is a partnership or multi-member limited liability company;
- Payee is a nonresident who does not have PA-source income; or
- Other; provide reason (such as payee is a tax-exempt entity, a retirement plan or IRA).

Please use the following link for more information on who is not subject to Pennsylvania personal income tax: https://revenue-pa.custhelp.com. Type in "1099-MISC" in the search box for a list of Frequently Asked Questions.

SECTION IV

CERTIFICATION OF PAYEE

The payee must enter their name, title (if applicable), telephone number, sign, and date the form. The payor is then relieved of the withholding requirements if the payor relies in good faith on a completed and signed REV-1832 unless notified by the department that the form should not be relied upon. If the payor receives an incomplete certificate, the payor is required to withhold tax on payments made to the payee until a valid certificate is received.

FORM RETENTION

Do not send this form to the PA Department of Revenue. The payor must retain the signed REV-1832 form for a minimum of four years or until the payee's status changes and must provide the form to the PA Department of Revenue upon request.

CAUTION: Failure to provide an Exemption Reason, failure to provide the payor with the REV-1832 form or failing to sign the REV-1832 form will not permit the payor to exempt the payee from withholding.
