PNC Capital Markets Launches PNC Asset Exchange to Help Financial Institution Clients Optimize Loan Portfolios

Exclusive online loan marketplace, powered by Community Capital, will expand client loan market access and liquidity management

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 16, 2023 – PNC FIG Advisory, part of PNC Capital Markets LLC, today announced an expansion to its client offerings through the introduction of PNC Asset Exchange, an online loan resource and marketplace for financial institutions. PNC Asset Exchange is powered by Community Capital Technology Inc.'s ("Community Capital") loan marketplace and business intelligence platform and will provide PNC's financial institution clients with a more efficient, effective way to optimize their loan portfolios.

PNC Asset Exchange will enable clients to more easily place and source loans in the secondary markets, as well as find new credit opportunities. Unlike other loan trading platforms, the new marketplace offers customized advice from PNC FIG Advisory's team of seasoned traders to help customers experience greater success. Whether the client is a seller looking to manage asset concentrations and liquidity, or a loan buyer seeking to diversify asset classes or enhance yield, the digital community of vetted financial institution members and loan opportunities provides a seamless solution for managing balance sheet risks and returns. For all activity types, the institution's identity can remain anonymous until a nonbinding bid is accepted and the due diligence process begins.

"The introduction of PNC Asset Exchange reflects our commitment to expanding our capital markets capabilities and investing in solutions our clients need to meet their evolving strategic needs," said Charlotte McLaughlin, president and CEO of PNC Capital Markets. "Leveraging Community Capital's online marketplace and PNC's trusted advisory services, we've coupled efficiency with expertise to bring a cutting-edge solution to the market."

PNC Asset Exchange provides member institutions the tools and information to quickly find and connect with nationwide proprietary deal flow and counterparties, as well as receive customized transaction level guidance to optimize results. The platform also includes the ability to create customized preferences that automatically identify and match members to relevant transactions, ensuring high-quality connections on deal opportunities and counterparties.

"PNC Asset Exchange combines great technology, real-time market insights, price discovery, diversified deal flow and counterparties, and experienced transactional support in one streamlined, easy-to-use platform," said Brian DeRespiris, COO of PNC Capital Markets and head of FIG Advisory and Institutional Fixed Income Sales. "By acting on timely and strategic recommendations, our clients can more effectively achieve their growth and liquidity objectives."
