Eligibility for HSA Transfer

You may only transfer funds into a PNC Bank HSA from an HSA, Archer MSA or IRA. You may only transfer funds if you are the accountholder of the transferring HSA, Archer MSA or IRA, the surviving spouse of a deceased accountholder, or the former spouse of the accountholder who is receiving an interest in the HSA, Archer MSA or IRA pursuant to a divorce or separation agreement.

One-Time Transfer from a Roth or Traditional IRA to an HSA

IRA transfers count toward and are limited to your maximum HSA contribution for the year. The amount of your IRA transfer is not allowed as a deduction. Your funds will be returned in the event that the deposit amount, when added to your total cumulative year-to-date contribution, exceeds the maximum annual contribution threshold as determined by the IRS. Generally, only one transfer may be made during the lifetime of an individual. Penalties may apply if High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) coverage does not continue for 12 months. This transfer option does not apply to SEP or SIMPLE IRAs.

Excess Contributions

You are not permitted to transfer excess contributions from an HSA, Archer MSA or IRA to a PNC Bank HSA. If any portion of your transfer is or becomes an excess contribution, it is your responsibility to notify PNC Bank and request a withdrawal of the excess contribution together with any net income attributable thereto.

Investments

Your HSA will be invested as provided under your HSA arrangement with PNC Bank.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This Health Savings Account (HSA) is a custody account with PNC Bank serving as the custodian. Terms and conditions of the HSA are included in your PNC BeneFit Plus Health Savings Account Disclosure Statement and Custodial Account Agreement and PNC BeneFit Plus Debit Card Agreement. Deposits to your HSA are held in an interest-bearing custodial account at the Bank and are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to the maximum amount permitted under FDIC guidelines. FDIC insurance is determined on end-of-day ledger balances in your deposit account which may include funds deducted from your available balance for investment purchases that have not yet settled.

Non-deposit investment products, such as mutual funds, are not deposits or obligations of, or guaranteed by PNC Bank or any of its affiliates, nor are they insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), or any other government agency. Past returns of investment products do not guarantee future results. Mutual fund prospectuses provide detailed information about fund investment objectives and fees. Read a mutual fund's current prospectus carefully before investing. PNC Bank does not provide legal, tax, or investment advice to HSA accountholders.
