

GREG JELINEK

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT PNC HEALTHCARE

Greg Jelinek has been with PNC since 1986. Before he joined the healthcare group, he led the asset management strategy to grow the Wealth and Institutional Investment business for the PNC's Corporate & Institutional Banking group.

He also served as market manager for the Commercial banking team in Northern Ohio and as chief credit officer for the Wealth Management business. In addition, Jelinek held positions as head of Business Banking and head of the Dealer Finance unit, as well as various leadership positions in Corporate Banking, investment, Real Estate, Credit and Retail Banking.

In addition to leading the healthcare division, he will serve as executive sponsor of the Healthcare Advisory Board.

Jelinek graduated from the University of Dayton in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in finance. In 1992, he earned his master's degree from Cleveland State University.

Jelinek serves on the board of the MetroHealth Foundation in Cleveland and is on the advisory committee for the Baldwin Wallace Center for Innovation & Growth. Former positions include board member and executive committee member of the Western Reserve Historical Society, and chair of the Hale Farm Advisory Committee.

Jeff Troutman, whom Greg succeeds in this position, has been promoted to head of all Treasury Management sales for PNC.

TITLE

Executive Vice President, National Sales Director
Treasury Management, PNC Healthcare
The PNC Financial Services Group

CORPORATE AND COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

Current

- > The MetroHealth Foundation
  - Board Member
  - Member of the Finance Committee
- > Baldwin Wallace Center for Innovation & Growth
  - Advisory Committee Member

Former

- > Western Reserve Historical Society
  - Board Member
  - Executive Committee
  - Chair of the Hale Farm Advisory Committee