PNC Education Refinance Loan*

Now more than ever, as the federal pause on student loan repayment concludes, your students and graduates may be asking for assistance with refinancing options. The PNC Education Refinance Loan (PERL) can help manage student loan debt with a better rate, a lower monthly payment and the flexibility to adjust the loan term. Your students and graduates need not look any further than PNC.

It’s simple. Student borrowers can choose the refinancing option that works for them.

- Customize your loan. Choose either a fixed or variable rate. Based on degree attained, select a 5-, 10-, 15- or 20-year repayment term and a loan amount from $10,000–$200,000.
- One simple payment. Combine student loans into one loan for the convenience of making a single monthly payment.
- Save with a rate discount. Set up automated payments from your checking or savings account, receive a 0.50% rate discount and pay less in interest.

Apply With Ease. Get Answers Fast.

With our convenient online application, borrowers can start, save or finish their application at any time. They’ll receive a preliminary decision within minutes of completing their application.
