Effective June 1, 2018, PNC reserves the right to refuse or return any deposit amount to you that causes the combined balance of all of your Virtual Wallet Growth accounts with us to exceed $5,000,000 (including any jointly owned, or in the case of an account owned by a living trust, jointly managed accounts).

Balances on your Growth account will receive a standard variable savings rate and APY. Beginning with the calendar month following the date you open your Virtual Wallet, you can qualify for a higher variable relationship rate in any month in which you meet any one of the following requirements:

- Make a combination of 5 or more debit card and/or credit card transactions during the previous calendar month.
  - Qualifying debit card transactions are either PIN or non-PIN point-of-sale transactions made from your Virtual Wallet Spend account.
  - Qualifying credit card transactions are signature based point-of-sale transactions made from a PNC consumer credit card you have chosen to link to your Virtual Wallet online view.
  - Cash advances and ATM transactions are not considered qualifying transactions.
  - Transactions are considered to be made when the transaction posts to the Spend or credit card account, which may be later than the date you initiated the transaction.
- Have $500 in qualifying direct deposits to your Spend account during the previous calendar month.
When either the standard or relationship rate is applied, your Growth account will earn interest on the entire account balance each day at the interest rate and APY in effect for the appropriate balance tier.

We will only link accounts at your direction. If you have not directed PNC to link another account to your Virtual Wallet, the accounts will not be linked and you will not receive a Relationship Rate or other relationship benefits on your unlinked PNC accounts. The requirement that you direct us to link accounts in order for you to receive benefits applies to all of your PNC accounts.

If You Are A Student: Some PNC Bank products may come with special benefits for students. Account benefits may vary by school. You must tell us when you obtain a new PNC Bank product or service that you are a student in order to receive any student benefits available for that PNC Bank product or service. That means that even if you told us when you opened your Virtual Wallet account that you are a student, you may not automatically receive available student benefits for other PNC Bank products or services you have or are receiving. We may require additional authorization or direction in order to provide some student benefits to you. Visit the Student & Graduate Center on pnc.com for additional information.

For current interest rate and Annual Percentage Yield information, call 1-888-PNC-BANK (1-888-762-2265).

FOOTNOTES:
1 A qualifying direct deposit is a recurring electronic deposit made by an employer or an outside agency. Transfers made from one account to another or deposits made via a branch, ATM, online transfer, mobile device or the mail are not eligible to meet this requirement.
2 See the PNC Virtual Wallet Fine Print “What You Need To Know”, “Interest, Payment and Balance Computation” section for details.
3 PNC Bank charges may apply for use of another financial institution's or ATM operator's ATMs. Additionally, other financial institutions and/or ATM operators may charge for using their ATMs.
4 Some accounts may not be eligible to be linked as overdraft protection based on titling structure, product type or other constraints. Transfers from your Reserve, Growth or other PNC deposit account are in the exact amount of the overdraft. Transfers from a line of credit or credit card are a minimum of $50.00, rounded upward to the next whole dollar. Transfers from a line of credit or credit card may be charged a fee on the line of credit or credit card. Overdraft Protection via a line of credit or credit card is subject to applicable Account Agreements and/or Disclosure Statements.
5 A federal regulation prohibits you from making more than a total of 6 transfers each month from other accounts in a savings or money market account (including transfers to another account for overdraft protection) or to third parties each month by check, through point-of-sale purchase transactions with a banking card, by pre-authorized or automatic agreements, telephone or online. See your account agreement for more information. Other limits may apply to your account. Excessive transactions may result in changing your Savings or Money Market account to a Standard Checking account and will be subject to the features and fees as described in the Consumer Schedule of Service Charges and Fees in effect at that time.
6 There may be fees for certain optional services available through PNC Online Banking and Bill Pay.
7 In the event your Spend account is closed, you will lose your Virtual Wallet and your Reserve and Growth accounts will become stand-alone Interest Checking and Standard Savings accounts respectively, and will be subject to the features and fees as described in the Consumer Schedule of Service Charges and Fees in effect at that time.

ACCOUNT AGREEMENT FOR YOUR VIRTUAL WALLET

This Agreement defines the relationship between you (the account holder) and us (PNC Bank). We think it will help you understand your account better and provide insight into procedures at PNC that impact your account.

This agreement covers your Virtual Wallet, which is comprised of 3 accounts working together:
- Your Spend account for Virtual Wallet is a non-interest-bearing checking account.
- Your Spend account for Virtual Wallet with Performance Spend or Virtual Wallet with Performance Select is an interest-bearing checking account.
- Your Reserve account is an interest-bearing checking account used for short-term savings goals.
- Your Growth account is a savings account which earns interest and can be used for longer-term savings goals.

These consumer accounts are for your personal, family, or household use only.

You don’t need to sign this agreement. When you sign the signature card, electronically acknowledge your agreement to the terms and conditions of the agreements provided on the “Terms and Conditions” page of the online account application, use your account(s), or add/change services connected to your account, you are agreeing to the terms and conditions in this agreement. You are also agreeing to comply with all local, state and federal laws, rules and regulations, as amended from time to time, including without limitation the Bank Secrecy Act, the USA PATRIOT Act, the federal anti-money-laundering statutes and any laws or regulations that are enforced or administered by the U.S. Treasury Department’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC).

This contract is legally binding, so we recommend that you read this agreement and keep it for reference. The terms of this agreement will take precedence over any statement, spoken or written, made by a PNC employee or officer.

If you appoint a legal representative or an attorney-in-fact (for example, if you give someone power of attorney), that person will also be bound by this agreement.

ABOUT YOUR ACCOUNT

Protecting your account
You are responsible for keeping track of your transactions.

You must protect your checks, debit card, and PIN, and must notify us if any of these items are lost or stolen.

Contact us immediately if you notice any irregularities in your account. We will investigate the situation. If necessary, we may require you to transfer the balance to another account or close the account, depending on the situation.

You are responsible for providing us with true, accurate and complete contact information, including a valid address (postal or email). If you change your address, please, notify us promptly by postal mail, electronic email, in person, by phone or through Online Banking. If you change your electronic contact information, please update through Online Banking. We will deliver notices and other materials using the contact information at the last address you have specified. We are not responsible for investigating whether or not you have changed contact information. If a notice is returned to us as undeliverable, by e-mail or postal mail, we can stop sending notices until you provide us a valid address.

Protecting your Debit Card
Your PIN serves as an electronic version of your signature, and has the same legal effect, so keep it safe.

- Do not tell your PIN to anyone else.
- Do not write your PIN on your card.
- Do not keep a copy of your PIN with your debit card.

If you give your debit card and PIN to anyone, you will be responsible for their actions. Contact the bank immediately if your debit card is lost or stolen, or if you have problems with your account.

Read the Consumer Electronic Funds Transfer Disclosure Statement, which further describes your rights and liabilities regarding your card and your PIN.

Your statement
You can check your balance and track your transactions online as soon as we process your deposits, withdrawals, and transfers. We will also mail or post ("deliver") a monthly statement of your Account that lists all account activity. We will do this: (1) by mailing the statement, in paper form, to the last postal address which you have specified for your Account; or (2) if you have opted to receive online statements in electronic form, by posting the statement in PDF form on PNC’s secure Online Banking web site. (For more information about online statements, please consult PNC’s Online Banking Service Agreement).

Review your statement carefully. If you notice a problem, such as an unauthorized payment or some other irregularity, you must notify us within 30 days of the day we delivered you the first statement that shows the irregularity. If you don't notify us in time, we will not be liable for charges to your account.
For your Spend and Reserve accounts, we will deliver a statement each month. Statements for your Growth account will be updated monthly if there are electronic fund transfers; otherwise, they will be delivered quarterly. We may deliver statements less frequently if your account is inactive. Your account is considered inactive if you don’t make any withdrawals or deposits for six or more months.

Deposit account servicing documents
We will mail or post ("deliver") account servicing communications ("documents") that provide information on certain account activity or other servicing information. We will do this: (1) by posting the document in PDF form on PNC’s secure Online Banking website if the communication is available to be delivered through Online Banking; or (2) by mailing the document, in paper form, to the last postal address which you have specified for your Account. (For more information about online documents, please consult PNC’s Online Banking Service Agreement).

Documents that are delivered through Online Banking will no longer be delivered by postal mail. For more information on documents that will be delivered through Online Banking and answers to common questions, visit the Documents tab within the Customer Service section of Online Banking.

We will also send you an email notification that a new document is ready to be viewed in Online Banking.

Access to your account
To appoint someone to act on your behalf
If you want someone to act as your agent, guardian, representative, or trustee, you must notify us so we can designate this person on our records as your agent.

If you appoint someone to act on your behalf, we will ask to review the documents (power of attorney, court order, etc.) that establish this arrangement. Appoint this person(s) carefully, since we will follow your agent’s instructions until we receive - and have time to act on - written notice that he/she is no longer your agent. We will not be held responsible for his/her actions.

FOR ACCOUNTS IN INDIANA: Such documents must be valid as defined by Indiana Code 30-5.

For payable on death or "in trust for" accounts
We will, as permitted by law, accept accounts that are designated as either payable on death ("POD Account(s)"), or in trust for another (both referred to as "POD Accounts(s)"), and which automatically transfer your POD Account, upon your death, to the beneficiaries ("POD Beneficiaries") designated on the signature card. This means that when you die the funds in a POD Account will not be part of your estate.

POD Beneficiaries have a right of survivorship. This means if one POD Beneficiary predeceases the owner(s) of the POD Account, the surviving POD Beneficiary would then take full ownership of the Account upon the death of the last owner and the heirs of the deceased POD Beneficiary would not be entitled to any ownership interest in the Account. If there is no surviving beneficiary when the last owner of the POD Account dies, then the Account is payable to the heirs (or estate, if a formal estate is raised) of the last surviving owner of the POD Account. FOR ACCOUNTS IN FLORIDA: POD Beneficiaries may only have equal shares. FOR ACCOUNTS IN MISSOURI: This Account is subject to the Missouri Nonprobate Transfers Law, Chapter 461 of the Mo. Rev. Statutes.

For joint accounts
Unless you open your account online, each account holder needs to sign a signature card to be considered a joint account holder. If you open your account online, each account holder needs to electronically acknowledge the terms and conditions of the agreements provided on the “Terms and Conditions” page of the online account application.

Unless we are given specific direction in writing, signed by all joint account holders, each joint account holder will be able to:
- Endorse checks made payable to any joint account holder
- Make deposits or withdrawals
- Provide instructions about the account or appoint a representative to act on his/her behalf

If your Account is a joint Account, you and the other account holder(s) own the joint account as joint tenants with the rights of survivorship and not as tenants in common. This means that each joint account holder has full control of the account while all are alive. If a joint account holder dies, all sums in the Account on the date of death belong to the surviving party(ies) and will not be part of the decedent’s estate.

We will honor a check signed by any joint account holder.

We consider any notice sent to one joint account holder to be a notice to all joint account holders. For documents delivered through Online Banking, all account holders will be able to view them by visiting the Documents tab in Online Banking. We will require at least one account holder to provide an email address to receive notification of the availability of a new document. All account holders may sign up to receive notifications and update notification preferences.

If we are served with legal process affecting funds in the account (e.g., garnishment), we will take any steps permitted or required by law pending resolution of the matter.

If an Account is in the names of spouses, you understand, intend and agree that such an account is NOT owned as tenants by the entireties unless otherwise expressly designated on the Account records. We reserve the right to refuse to allow you to hold the Account as tenants by the entireties, in our discretion.

Charges and fees
Charges and fees will be assessed to your account. To avoid overdrawing your account, be sure to include these fees when you balance your account.

We will deduct from your account any charges or fees that you owe. These charges may include:
- A monthly service charge
- Charges for account services
- A legal process charge if your funds are attached or garnished
These fees will reduce your balance. In some cases, this may cause you to overdraw your account or your outstanding checks to be returned unpaid.

DEPOSITING MONEY

Overview
You may make a deposit in several ways, such as:

- In person
- By mail
- At an ATM
- By a mobile device

We recommend using the deposit slips that come with your account; they are encoded with information that will help ensure that your deposit is credited correctly.

If you make a deposit, we may adjust your account if there are computational errors — for example, if you added your checks incorrectly and deposited more or less than you thought you did at the ATM.

Make sure your deposit makes it safely to the bank
We recommend you retain your receipts - you may need them to prove your deposit.

Don’t mail cash, since there’s a risk it will be stolen.

We verify all deposits, but will not be held responsible for deposits we don’t have a record of or don’t receive.

Ensure your account number is correct when electronically transferring funds to your account through the Automated Clearing House (ACH) network. An example of this type of transfer is when your paycheck is deposited through direct deposit. We rely on the account number provided by the person or financial institution sending the funds, and are not responsible if we are given an incorrect account number.

As soon as the fund transfer is credited to your account, you can access this information online through Virtual Wallet. We will also notify you of this deposit on your regular account statement.

Endorsing checks
Be sure to properly endorse your checks and only use the area allowed for your endorsement.

We may be unable to deposit your check if you’ve written your endorsement in the wrong area.

If your check is missing an endorsement, we have the right to fill it in. However, we may refuse to accept a check, for example, if it has multiple endorsements (such as a check made payable to someone else and later signed over to you).

If we need to investigate an improperly endorsed check or obtain an endorsement, we may place a hold on your account until we can resolve the matter.
Collecting your deposits
The time it takes to collect the funds you deposit depends on the banks or parties involved and their locations. Sometimes, due to circumstances beyond our control, your deposits will take longer to become available.
We have the right to refuse to cash a check made out to you, and we may require you to deposit it.

When you make a non-cash deposit, we post it to your account, but this credit is dependent on receiving final payment. If you make a deposit that will not be paid - for example, if you deposit a bad check, or we don't receive final payment for electronically deposited funds - we will withdraw this amount from your account plus any interest you’ve earned. We will also charge you a fee for reversing the money from your account (this is called returning a deposit). If this causes your account to be overdrawn, you must also pay the amount of the overdraft immediately, as well as any overdraft charges.

We may return all or part of a deposit at any time. We do not have to notify you before we credit or revoke these funds from your account.

Any fees we have to pay to collect a deposit from your account, such as lawyers’ fees, will be charged to your account. All deposits and credits to your account, including without limitation wire transfers and other electronic payments, are subject to review for compliance with applicable law, including without limitation regulations enforced by OFAC. This may result in delays in posting such deposits or credits to your account, or refusal to accept all or part of the deposit. We will not be liable to you for any such delays or refusals.

If we have to reimburse the government for funds deposited into your account, we may deduct that amount from any account you have with us. We do not have to notify you first, unless required by law.

Read the PNC Virtual Wallet, Virtual Wallet with Performance Spend or Virtual Wallet with Performance Select Features and Fees for overdraft and fees for returned items.

WITHDRAWING MONEY

Overview
Your account offers many ways to withdraw money, such as online, in-person, checks, debits, or through ATM transactions.

We withdraw funds from your account on the day an item is presented to us or when we are notified that an item drawn on your account, such as a check, has been deposited in another financial institution.

Using your debit card
You may use your debit card for ATM transactions and to purchase goods and services. Debit cards are considered bank property. We have the right to cancel your card without notice at anytime and may require you to surrender it.
Writing checks
If you write a check, we can only honor it if it is properly filled out and signed by you or your representative whose authority is on file with us.

We don't return your checks after processing them. If available, we will provide check images or photocopies.

Review the PNC Virtual Wallet, Virtual Wallet with Performance Spend or Virtual Wallet with Performance Select Features and Fees for any fees for providing check images or photocopies.

Use blue or black ink
Writing or depositing checks with decorative images or ink colors other than black or blue increases the possibility of processing errors. We will not be liable for any losses you incur as a result of processing errors.

Write a current date on your checks
We are not responsible for checks that are missing dates, postdated, or stale-dated. If you do not wish to pay a check you have already written, place a stop payment order with us. Read the Stop Payment Section of this Agreement for more information. We have the right to refuse requests to cash checks that you have written with an inappropriate date. We also have the right to impose a charge for cashing a check that you have written if the date is not current.

Signing checks
You must sign your checks, or a representative who has been granted check-writing authority must sign them.

If you have a joint account, any joint account holder may sign checks. Protect any stamps or machinery you use to sign checks, since their use by any person is considered an authorized signature.

We process checks automatically so that we can clear the largest number of checks at the lowest cost to customers. We have a duty to use “ordinary care” in examining the checks that we process; by processing your check automatically, we have used ordinary care. We have also used ordinary care if a check has unauthorized signatures, or is altered so skillfully that a reasonably careful person cannot readily detect this change. We will not be liable for any resulting losses.

Insufficient funds and Overdrafts
You should consider all your transactions when you make a withdrawal. We give you daily access to the information we have regarding your account balances and transactions, but the accuracy of that information is subject to any pending or unprocessed transactions that only you know about. It is your responsibility to keep track of your transactions and balances accurately.

Overdrafts
We are only required to permit a withdrawal if your account has sufficient available funds to cover the whole amount.
FOR ACCOUNTS IN INDIANA: If you do not deposit sufficient funds to bring your Account current within a reasonable time of incurring an overdraft, then we may charge you a fee for services used to recover the outstanding indebtedness.

If you are a recipient of Social Security or other government benefits which have been deposited in the account, you specifically authorize us to apply such benefits to pay any overdraft.

Payment of Overdrafts for Debit Card Transactions

Virtual Wallet includes Overdraft Protection. If you overload your Spend account, we will transfer money from your Reserve, Growth or other designated PNC account to cover the transactions creating the overdraft. If funds from your Reserve and Growth (or any other account used for overdraft protection) are also insufficient to cover your withdrawal(s) from your Spend account, your transaction may be declined. If you want us to allow you to complete a transaction that may cause an overdraft to your Spend account when using your debit card at ATMs, and for everyday (one-time or non-recurring) merchant purchases, you must specifically authorize us to do so. If you authorize us to pay these transactions, you agree to repay us immediately the amount of any funds advanced to you. We may also assess your Spend account with associated overdraft fees. At no time shall we be required to allow you to overdraft your Account even if we had allowed such activity on one or more prior occasions.

If you do not specifically authorize us to complete these transactions on your Spend account, we will decline these transactions if your funds are not sufficient to cover them. We may not be able to prevent all overdrafts (including, without limitation, transactions that a merchant does not submit for authorization). Even if we are unable to prevent such overdrafts, you are still required to repay us immediately the amount of the funds advanced to your account to pay such transactions.

We will decline transactions that cause overdrafts to your Reserve or Growth account. Again, we may not be able to prevent all overdrafts, but even if we are unable to prevent the overdraft, you are still required to pay us any amount of funds advanced to you.

If you have authorized us to pay overdrafts when using your debit card, and you are using a PNC Bank ATM, we can give you the choice to cancel the transaction if it would cause an overdraft. We are not able to provide you this choice when using a non-PNC Bank ATM or when making purchases.

Payment of Overdrafts for Checks, ACH Transactions, and Preauthorized Automatic Debits

Checks, ACH Transactions and preauthorized automatic debits (including recurring debit transactions) that exceed the available balance in your account and thus create an overdraft, are subject to associated overdraft fees. If, in our sole discretion, we choose to allow these withdrawals when there are not sufficient available funds in your account, you agree to repay us immediately the amount of any funds advanced to you. In addition, your account may still be assessed with associated overdraft fees. At no time shall we be required to allow you to overdraft your Account even if we had allowed such activity on one or more prior occasions. We reserve the right to refuse to cash or to impose a charge on anyone who asks us to cash a check that you have written. Even if your check is otherwise properly payable, we will not be liable to you for dishonor of your check, or otherwise, as a result of such refusal. The classification of a transaction as recurring or non-recurring is determined by merchants, other institutions or other third parties before it is presented to us for authorization or payment.

Pending Transactions
In determining whether you have sufficient funds in your account to pay checks and other withdrawal items, we will consider both of the following: (1) the deposits and withdrawals posted that day to your account, and (2) all pending electronic transactions (including, but not limited to, point-of-sale transactions) for which PNC has received notice, even if those transactions have not yet posted to your account. We may conclusively rely on notice of electronic transactions in determining whether you have sufficient funds in your account to cover a withdrawal even if the notice incorrectly describes the transaction. This could result in an overdraft, or cause transactions to be declined, if sufficient funds are not available in your account to pay all checks and other withdrawal items. Pending electronic transactions include (but are not limited to) purchases, transfers or withdrawals made with your Debit Card or Banking Card, merchant payment authorizations, online transfers of funds, telephone transfers and any other electronic transactions or transfers. We will not be responsible for damages or wrongful dishonor if any item is not paid because of insufficient funds resulting from this method of determining whether you have sufficient funds to pay all checks and other withdrawal items. In addition, funds you may have deposited may not be immediately available under our Funds Availability Policy. Please review our Funds Availability Policy for more information.

Order of Processing Withdrawals
Our general practice is to first add deposits (credits) to your Account, and then subtract withdrawals (debits) from your Account. Transactions are ordered according to the date and time the bank receives notice of the transaction. We receive notice of transactions at various times throughout the day, and not necessarily in the order in which they occur. If multiple transactions are received at the same time, or are grouped together and contain no time, then the items will be processed in order of sequence number or, if no sequence number is available, largest-to-smallest dollar amount. If we do not have information that allows us to determine the exact time notice of a transaction was received, we may assign an approximated time to that transaction.

Debit card purchases will be posted according to the date and time provided by the merchant. Because processing times vary, the time we receive notice of a transaction may differ from the time shown on a receipt.

This order of processing may affect the total number of overdrafts on your account (and, if applicable, the total amount and number of overdraft fees charged). We will not be liable for damages or wrongful dishonor if any item is not paid as a result of the order in which we process withdrawals.

Other Information
We are only required to make one determination per day regarding whether your balance is sufficient to pay transactions. We don't have to determine your balance again if you have more funds available later in that day.

We are not required to notify you if we:
- pay a check that overdraws your account
• choose not to pay a check that will overdraft your account
• charge you a fee for either of these scenarios

Stop payment orders
You may stop payment on any:
• Checks
• Preauthorized transfers
• Or Visa Debit Card recurring debits

If you want more information on stopping payment of a preauthorized transaction, see our Consumer Electronic Funds Transfer Disclosure Statement.

You cannot stop payment on:
• Cashier’s checks
• Money orders
• Other items that are equivalent to cash

To stop payment, verify that the information you provide, such as the amount and check number, is accurate. We process stop payment orders by computer, so you need to provide accurate information. Otherwise, we cannot ensure the item you want stopped will not be paid. We will accept a stop payment order from anyone with signing authority on your account, regardless of who wrote the check or made the payment order that is being stopped.

We must receive your stop payment order with enough time and in a manner that we can reasonably act on it before finalizing your payment.

After we receive your stop payment order, it will be effective for 6 months, unless you notify us in writing to cancel the stop payment order sooner. Stop payment orders on Visa Debit Card recurring debits are effective for 2 years. For any stop payment to be effective, at least 1 transaction must have been posted to your account.

To extend a stop payment order, you need to write or call us before it expires. If you do not extend the stop payment order, we are allowed to pay an item presented to us after the stop payment order has expired. If we inadvertently pay an item that you have a stop payment order on, we may not recredit your account if you owe money to the payee. If we recredit your account, you will have assigned us your rights against the payee(s), for the item and the underlying claim.

TRANSFERRING MONEY

Transaction limitations
You may make unlimited withdrawals and transfers from an ATM, in person, or by mail.
For savings accounts, you may not make more than 6 preauthorized, automated or telephone transfers or debit card or similar payment order to a third person each monthly statement period.

See the Consumer Electronic Funds Transfers Disclosure Statement or ask a PNC Bank employee.
Some of the transactions that are limited include:

- Overdraft transfers from a savings account to cover checking transactions
- Transferring money from a savings account to a checking account online, over the phone, by fax, or email
- Transferring money electronically to pay a third party, a mortgage with another bank, utilities, gym membership, etc.

The number of transactions from savings accounts is limited under federal regulation. We have the right to monitor and prevent transfers that exceed this limit. If you continue to exceed the transfer limit, we may close your account or convert it to one without transfer limitations.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Disagreements between joint account holders
If we receive notice of a dispute between 2 or more account holders, we may require all account holders to sign transactions. This ensures that everyone is aware of the transaction. If we are served with a legal process regarding the funds in the account, such as a court order, lien, or garnishment, we will take any steps permitted or required by law pending resolution of the matter.

Death of an account holder
If a joint account holder dies, the other account holders are responsible for notifying us.

If your account is considered payable-on-death, we will transfer your account to the beneficiaries listed on your signature card.

Ordinarily, we have the right to pay any checks and carry out any other transactions authorized by the deceased depositor for 10 days after the date of death, or for a different period of time if specified by law. For joint accounts, the surviving account holder(s) can stop payment on checks or transfers made by the deceased. For accounts with a single account holder, a legal representative can stop payment on checks or transfers made by the deceased. Otherwise, we will pay all checks and carry out all authorized transactions for 10 days.

Until legal requirements are met, we may refuse withdrawals from your account.

If your account becomes inactive
Your account is considered inactive if you don’t make any withdrawals or deposits for six or more months. You will still be assessed:
- Existing charges and fees
- Any charges and fees introduced or raised during the period of inactivity

We may send you statements less frequently if your account becomes inactive. Additionally, your account may be considered “abandoned property” under state law if it is inactive for an extended period of time. The definition of “inactive,” and the time period, depend on which state’s law applies. If your account is “abandoned property,” we are required to transfer the balance to the state.
If we need to reclaim money
If you receive payment from us for an item, such as a check, and we need to investigate a claim that the item contains a forged endorsement or alteration, we are allowed to place a hold on your account while the investigation is made. If we find that the item contains a forged endorsement or alteration, we are allowed to charge your account for the face value of the item.

When you open the account, you and any joint depositors grant us a security interest in the balance in your account and joint accounts held in your name, including those held by husband and wife. This means we may charge your account for any debts owed to us (i.e., loans, overdrafts, obligations) by you or your joint account holder, even if the account holder is your husband/wife.

If necessary, we may charge other accounts you hold individually or jointly for the money owed to us. We are not required to give you or other account holders advance notice before exercising these rights.

Debts from bank credit cards, IRAs, or other tax-deferred retirement accounts are not included unless permitted by law.

Our right to reclaim money owed to us takes priority over:
- Change of ownership
- Pledge
- Garnishment
- Court order or legal process

We will take any steps permitted or required by law to resolve the matter.

FOR ACCOUNTS IN INDIANA: All joint account holders specifically agree that the provisions of Indiana Code 32-17-11-17 and 32-17-11-27, regarding the proportion of net contribution by each joint account holder, shall not apply to any charge to an Account under this section, and we shall have the right to deduct from any such Account the amount of any indebtedness due and owing to us from any joint account holder up to and including the entire balance of any such Account without regard to the contribution to the Account.

Reporting negative information to credit bureaus; Disputing reported information
We may report information regarding your Account to credit bureaus. If the Account is jointly held, we may also report information to credit bureaus about any joint owner(s). Negative information, including closing of the Account with an overdrawn balance owed or other defaults on the Account, may be reflected in each joint owner’s credit report. If you believe that the information that PNC Bank is furnishing to ChexSystems or Early Warning Systems is inaccurate or incomplete, and you wish to dispute the reported information, you may dispute directly to PNC Bank and/or to ChexSystems or Early Warning Services, as applicable, however, the dispute must be in writing and sent by mail or fax as follows:

- PNC Bank, Attn: Support Services Department, P.O. Box 3180, Pittsburgh, PA 15230-3180.
- Chex Systems, Inc., 7805 Hudson Road, Suite 100, Woodbury, MN 55125, or faxing it to: 602-659-2197.
• Early Warning Services, LLC Attn: Consumer Services, 18552 North 90th Street Suite 100, Scottsdale, AZ, 85260 or faxing it to: 480-656-6850.

Your correspondence should include the following information:
• Your name, address and Social Security Number
• Your account number
• The information being reported that you believe is inaccurate or incomplete
• Any supporting documentation, such as account statements, letters, etc.
• A copy of the ChexSystems or Early Warning Services report, if available

Transferring your account
If you want to transfer ownership of your account, the transfer has to appear on our records to be considered effective.

If you want to remove a joint account holder, or transfer ownership of your account, you may need to close the account, and a new account can then be opened by the new owner(s).

If you are pledging your account to pay for a debt, we must approve of this transfer.

Closing your account
You or the bank can close your account at any time by providing written notice. If we close the account, we will mail you a check for the final balance. If you close the account, you will still be responsible for any outstanding checks written, or service charges or overdrafts incurred, before, during, or after the time you closed the account. We are not required to close the account at your request until all known authorized or outstanding items (including checks, ATM, point-of-sale, ACH and other electronic transactions) have been paid from your account and any outstanding disputes (including but not limited to disputes regarding electronic transfers, ACH transactions or other unresolved internal research requests/disputes concerning the account) have been resolved. We will not reopen a closed account except as necessary to resolve any outstanding disputes. Any items presented for payment after an account has been closed will be returned to the payee and you will be liable for any associated charges. Any additional deposits or electronic credits (including Social Security, pension payments and automatic payroll deposits) will be returned to the originator.

WHAT WE DO BEHIND THE SCENES

Maintaining your account
You have 2 checking accounts:
• Spend, which does not earn interest if part of a Virtual Wallet, but does earn interest if part of a Virtual Wallet with Performance Spend or Virtual Wallet with Performance Select
• Reserve, which earns interest

For more information on how interest is calculated, read the “Interest Payment and Balance Computation” section of this booklet.
Each checking account is comprised of 2 sub-accounts that we manage. It does not affect your interactions with your account. For your Virtual Wallet Spend account, one of the sub-accounts is a checking sub-account; the other is a non-interest-bearing money market sub-account. For the Spend portion of your Virtual Wallet with Performance Spend or Virtual Wallet with Performance Select, one of the sub-accounts is a checking sub-account; the other is an interest-bearing money market sub-account. For Reserve, one of the sub-accounts is a checking sub-account, and the other is an interest-bearing money market sub-account.

To cover your withdrawals, we transfer funds each day from the money market sub-account to the checking sub-account. Each statement period we allocate funds between the 2 sub-accounts. After 6 transfers, all the money from the money market sub-account is transferred to the checking sub-account for the remainder of the period.

Calculating interest
We are required by law to report the interest you earn to the government, so we need your Social Security number (or other written certification) to do so. Otherwise—as required by federal law—we may withhold this interest, pay a portion to the government, and you may face a government penalty.

Giving written notice before withdrawing funds
We want withdrawing funds to be easy and convenient, but under federal regulation, we have the right to require that you give us written notice 7 days before withdrawing funds from an interest-bearing account. It’s not often that we require this notice; however, we are allowed to require you to give this notice, even if we have never done so before.

If you request a large cash withdrawal at a branch office, we may require advance notification to ensure an adequate supply of cash is available at the branch.

Our use of check images and substitute checks
We don’t return your original checks, but you can request an image of your cashed checks.

Your original check will be taken out of circulation and destroyed once an electronic record of it - either an image or a record of the data - has been created. The bank will then use this electronic record for collection, payment, and return. This is often referred to as the “image exchange process.” Under this Agreement, the image exchange process can be subject to the rules of check clearings houses, the Federal Reserve, or exchange agreements between 2 or more banks. A check image received or created by us will be considered a “check” or an “item” for purposes of this Agreement and any applicable law.

We may also create or process substitute checks, which are for bank use only. You will rarely have a substitute check, but if you do, you cannot deposit it with us. If you deposit a substitute check with another bank, or transfer a substitute check to another person, you shall not identify us as a “reconverting bank” or “truncating bank” on that document. If you do, you will be required to compensate us for any loss we incur directly or indirectly.

Read the Substitute Check Policy Disclosure in this booklet for more information on this and the Check 21 Act.
Remotely created checks
A remotely created check is one that you authorize - for example, over the phone - but does not have your signature. We may honor a remotely created check that you (or any joint account holder) authorize someone else to create.

If you deposit a remotely created check, and the check is not authorized to be paid in the amount stated on it or to the person to whom it is made out, you will be required to compensate us for any loss we incur as a result.

All the agreements that apply to checks also apply to remotely created checks, except these checks will not have an account holder's signature on them. If you violate any of these terms, we will require compensation for any loss we incur as a result.

Your personal information; Call recording; Consent for service calls
We will treat personal information about you and your account in accordance with the PNC Privacy Notice, What Does PNC Do With Your Personal Information? You agree to cooperate with us in any recordkeeping and reporting which we believe necessary to fulfill government requirements. You consent that any phone call with us may be monitored or recorded by us. By providing telephone number(s) to us, now or at any later time, you authorize PNC and its affiliates and designees to contact you regarding your account(s) with PNC and its affiliates at such numbers using any means, including but not limited to placing calls using an automated dialing system to cell, VoIP or other wireless phone number, or by sending prerecorded messages or text messages, even if charges may be incurred for the calls or text messages.

APPLICABILITY AND EFFECTIVENESS OF THIS AGREEMENT

Providing written notice
If you give us written notice, we consider it effective when we receive it. If we give you written notice, this notice is effective (1) when it is mailed to you at the address on file for your statement, or (2) if you have opted to receive online statements in electronic form, when it is posted on PNC’s secure Online Banking web site. (For more information about online amendments and statements, please refer to your Online Banking Service Agreement.)

Disclosures
Any disclosure statements or policies we give you are considered a part of this agreement.

Agreements for other services
If the terms and conditions for other bank services (such as online banking) conflict with this agreement, the agreement for those bank services will be used instead of this agreement. However, this only applies to the conflicting terms. The rest of the language in this Agreement will still be in effect.

Severability
If a court finds any part of this agreement to be considered invalid, or unenforceable for any reason, the rest of the agreement will continue to be in effect.
Amendments
We will update this agreement and the PNC Virtual Wallet, Virtual Wallet with Performance Spend or Virtual Wallet with Performance Select Features and Fees from time to time. We may change fees and charges, and we have the right to convert your account from one product to another. We will inform you of any amendment (1) by mailing notice of the amendment and the amendment itself, in paper form, to the address on file for your statement; or (2) if you have opted to receive online statements in electronic form, by posting the notice of the amendment and the amendment itself on PNC’s secure Online Banking web site. If you receive statements in paper form, the amendment will generally appear on your statement. In some cases, notice of the amendment will appear on the statement and the amendment itself will be included on an insert accompanying your statement. If you have opted to receive online statements, the amendment will generally appear as a message on the PDF statement posted on PNC’s secure Online Banking web site as well as in the “Messages” section of the site. In some cases, the amendment will be included as a PDF insert on the web site. (For more information about online amendments and statements, please refer to your Online Banking Service Agreement.) When the amendment becomes effective, we will post the new version of this Agreement online and make the new version available in our branches. An amendment will become effective 30 days (or such later time if required by law) after notice of the amendment is delivered or otherwise made available to you, unless a shorter time period is permitted by applicable law or required because of an emergency situation. If we make changes due to an emergency situation, we will notify you as soon as possible. When we provide notice to a joint account holder, we will consider it sufficient for all account holders. Your continued use of your Virtual Wallet and the Accounts in it following the effective date of the Amendment will indicate that you agree to be bound by this agreement, as amended.

Waiver of Terms
We may waive any of these terms and conditions from time to time. To be effective, the waiver must be written, and it must be signed by a bank officer.

The fact that we waive a term or condition once, or multiple times, does not mean that we have waived the right permanently, and it does not require us to waive it on any occasion in the future.

Governing Law
This agreement is governed by the laws of the United States of America, and also by applicable state law as follows:

If you opened your account in person in one of our branch offices.
This agreement is also governed by the laws and regulations of the state where that branch office is located.

If you opened your account by mail or online
This agreement is also governed by the laws and regulations of your state (if we have a branch office there) or the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (if we don’t have a branch office there).
INTEREST PAYMENT AND BALANCE COMPUTATION

Your interest rates and Annual Percentage Yields may change. At our discretion, we may change the interest rate(s) and Annual Percentage Yield(s) on your account at any time without notice to you.

Interest is compounded monthly and credited on the last day of each monthly statement period. If you close your account before interest is credited, you will not receive the accrued interest.

We use the daily balance method to calculate the interest on your account. This method applies a daily periodic rate to the total principal in the account each day. Reserve accounts earn interest on the entire account balance each day at the interest rate and annual percentage yield in effect for that day's balance. The Spend portion of Virtual Wallet does not earn interest. The Spend portion of Virtual Wallet with Performance Spend and Virtual Wallet with Performance Select earns interest on the entire account balance each day at the interest rate and annual percentage yield in effect for the appropriate balance tier. Growth accounts earn interest on the entire account balance each day at the interest rate and annual percentage yield in effect for the appropriate balance tier. Interest begins to accrue no later than the business day we receive credit for the deposit of checks and other non-cash items.

If you use the combined average monthly balances in your qualifying checking account(s) to avoid the monthly service charge on a Virtual Wallet with Performance Spend or Virtual Wallet with Performance Select Checking account, then on the statement date of your Spend account, we review the average monthly balance for each related account for the current statement period.

The average monthly balance is calculated by adding the principal in each of your related accounts for each day of the current statement period and dividing that figure by the number of days in the current statement period.
ARBITRATION PROVISION

READ THIS ARBITRATION PROVISION CAREFULLY: IT WILL IMPACT HOW LEGAL CLAIMS YOU AND WE HAVE AGAINST EACH OTHER ARE RESOLVED. Under the terms of this Arbitration Provision, and except as set forth below, Claims (as defined below) will be resolved by individual (and not class-wide) binding arbitration in accordance with the terms specified herein, if you or we elect it.

YOUR RIGHT TO OPT OUT; EFFECT OF ARBITRATION.
This Arbitration Provision will apply to you and us and to your Account as of the date your Account was opened (or, if you are an existing customer, as of the date of this Agreement), unless you opt out by providing proper and timely notice as set forth below. If a Claim is arbitrated, neither you nor we will have the right to: (1) have a court or a jury decide the Claim; (2) engage in information-gathering (discovery) to the same extent as in court; (3) participate in a class action, private attorney general or other representative action in court or in arbitration; or (4) join or consolidate a Claim with those of any other person.

This Arbitration Provision will survive the termination of this Agreement. See further details below.

Definitions
“We,” “Us” and “Our.” Solely as used in this Arbitration Provision, the terms “we,” “us” and “our” also refer to (1) our employees, officers, directors, parents, controlling persons, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, acquired entities, successors and assigns; and (2) any failed bank to the extent of the assets acquired by us or our affiliates.

“Account.” For purposes of this Arbitration Provision, “Account” refers to your personal deposit account or accounts with us and the features and services provided in connection with it or them. Personal Deposit Accounts include checking accounts, savings accounts, money market deposit accounts, and certificates of deposit. Certificates of deposit and money market deposit accounts held in a retirement account are collectively an “Account.” “Account” also refers, collectively and separately, to the Spend, Reserve and Growth accounts in your Virtual Wallet, Virtual Wallet with Performance Spend or Virtual Wallet with Performance Select.

“Claim.” A “Claim” subject to arbitration is any demand, cause of action, complaint, claim, asserted right, or request for monetary or equitable relief, whether past, present or future, and based upon any legal theory, including contract, tort, consumer protection law, fraud, statute, regulation, ordinance, or common law, which arises out of or relates to this Agreement, your Account or Accounts, the events leading up to your becoming an Account holder (for example, advertisements or promotions), any feature or service provided in connection with your Account or Accounts, or any transaction conducted with us related to any of your Accounts.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term “Claim” excludes: (a) any dispute or controversy about the validity, enforceability, coverage or scope of this Arbitration Provision or any part thereof, including the Class Action Waiver below (a court will decide such disputes or controversies); and (b) any individual action brought by either party in small claims court or your state’s equivalent court, unless such action is transferred, removed or appealed to a different court.
Arbitration Procedures

a. Agreement to Arbitrate Claims. Except if you opt out as provided below, you or we may elect to arbitrate any Claim.

b. Electing arbitration. If you or we elect to arbitrate a Claim, the party electing arbitration must notify the other party in writing (the "Notice"). Your Notice to us shall be sent to PNC Bank, N.A., Legal Department, PNC Tower (18th Floor), 300 Fifth Avenue, Mailstop: PT-PTWR-18-1, Pittsburgh, PA 15222, Attn: Notice of Arbitration (the "Notice Address"). Our Notice to you shall be sent to the most recent address for you in our files. Any arbitration hearing that you attend will take place in a venue in the county where you reside unless you and we agree otherwise. If a party files a lawsuit in court asserting a Claim and the other party elects arbitration, such Notice may be asserted in papers filed in the lawsuit (for example, a motion by the defendant to compel arbitration of Claims asserted by the plaintiff in a lawsuit filed in court). If you or we commence litigation of a claim, neither you nor we waive our right to elect arbitration with respect to any counterclaim or other claim that you or we may make. In the event that a court grants a motion to compel arbitration, either party may commence the arbitration proceeding in accordance with the rules and procedures of the arbitration administrator specified in this section.

c. Arbitration costs. We will pay the filing, administrative and/or arbitrator’s fees ("Arbitration Fees") that we are required to pay pursuant to the administrator’s rules or the law. In addition, with respect to Arbitration Fees that you are required to pay under the administrator’s rules in connection with an individual arbitration you have commenced against us, (i) if the amount of your Claim does not exceed $75,000 and we receive a written request by you at the Notice Address, we will pay or reimburse you for your payment of said Arbitration Fees; (ii) if the amount of your Claim exceeds $75,000 and we receive a written request by you at the Notice Address, we will consider paying said Arbitration Fees if you are unable to pay them and cannot obtain a waiver or reduction of them from the arbitration administrator.

d. Arbitration administrator and rules. The party electing arbitration must choose between one of two administrators: (1) the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), or (2) JAMS. The administrator chosen will apply its rules and/or codes of procedures in effect at the time arbitration is elected. You may obtain a copy of the rules/codes, and more information about initiating an arbitration, by (1) contacting AAA at 1-800-778-7879 or visiting www.adr.org, or (2) contacting JAMS at 1-800-352-6267 or visiting www.jamsadr.com. The arbitrator is bound by the terms of this Agreement. If neither AAA nor JAMS can serve, the parties may agree on another administrator, or a court may appoint one.

e. What law the arbitrator will apply. The arbitrator will not be bound by judicial rules of procedure and evidence that would apply in a court, or by state or local laws that relate to arbitration proceedings. However, the arbitrator will apply the same statutes of limitation and privileges that a court would apply if the matter were pending in court. In determining liability or awarding damages or other relief, the arbitrator will follow the applicable substantive law, consistent with the Federal Arbitration Act (FAA), that would apply if the matter had been brought in court.
f. The arbitrator’s decision and award; attorney fees. At the timely request of either party, the arbitrator shall provide a brief written explanation of the grounds for the decision. The arbitrator may award any damages or other relief or remedies that would apply under applicable law, as limited in Section (e.) above, to an individual action brought in court. In addition, with respect to claims asserted by you in an individual arbitration, we will pay your reasonable attorney, witness and expert fees and costs if and to the extent you prevail, or if applicable law requires us to do so.

g. Effect of arbitration Award; appeal. The arbitrator’s award shall be final and binding on all parties, except for any right of appeal provided by the Federal Arbitration Act.

Federal Arbitration Act
This Agreement evidences a transaction in interstate commerce, and thus the Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this Arbitration Provision.

CLASS ACTION WAIVER
If either you or we elect to arbitrate a Claim, neither you nor we will have the right: (a) to participate in a class action, private attorney general action or other representative action in court or in arbitration, either as a class representative or class member; or (b) to join or consolidate Claims with claims of any other persons. No arbitrator shall have authority to conduct any arbitration in violation of this provision or to issue any relief that applies to any person or entity other than you and/or us individually. The parties acknowledge that the Class Action Waiver is material and essential to the arbitration of any Claims and is non-severable from this Arbitration Provision. If the Class Action Waiver is voided, found unenforceable, or limited with respect to any Claim for which you seek class-wide relief, then the parties’ Arbitration Provision (except for this sentence) shall be null and void with respect to such Claim, subject to the right to appeal the limitation or invalidation of the Class Action Waiver. However, the Arbitration Provision shall remain valid with respect to all other Claims. The parties acknowledge and agree that under no circumstances will a class action be arbitrated.

Conflicts; Severability; Survival
This Arbitration Provision is intended to be broadly interpreted. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this Arbitration Provision and the AAA or JAMS rules, or any other terms of the Agreement, the provisions of this Arbitration Provision shall control. If any part of this Arbitration Provision is deemed or found to be unenforceable for any reason, the remainder shall be enforceable, except as provided by the Class Action Waiver. This Arbitration Provision shall survive (1) the closing of your Account and the termination of any relationship between us, including the termination of the Agreement, and (2) survive any bankruptcy to the extent consistent with applicable bankruptcy law.

RIGHT TO OPT OUT
You may opt out of this Arbitration Provision by calling us toll free at 1-855-762-2432, or by sending us a written notice which includes your name(s), Account number, and a statement that you (both or all of you, if more than one) do not wish to be governed by the Arbitration Provision in your Account Agreement (the “Opt Out Notice”). Your decision to opt out will not affect any other provision of this Account Agreement. If the Arbitration Provision of your Account Agreement has already been delivered or otherwise made available to you, amendments to your Account Agreement will not give you a new right to opt out of this Arbitration Provision, unless we amend a substantive clause of the Arbitration Provision.
CONSUMER FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY

Introducing Our Funds Availability Policy
When you deposit checks and similar items to your PNC Bank account, you expect us to make the funds available for your use as quickly as possible. Our Funds Availability Policy is designed to do just that. Depending on the type of non-cash deposit you make, your funds may be available as quickly as the next business day. Of course, depending on the amount, type and source of your non-cash deposit, there are situations when your deposit will take longer to become available for your use.

Our Funds Availability Policy provides detailed information about when funds you deposit will become available for your use. This policy is in effect for accounts opened in all PNC Bank markets.

Please take a moment to review this Policy. By understanding how we make your deposits of non-cash items available, it will be easier for you to manage your account and realize all the benefits of banking with PNC Bank.

Determining Availability of a Deposit
We determine availability by counting the number of business days from the business day of your deposit. Every day except Saturday, Sunday and a federal holiday is a business day.

If you make a deposit through one of our branch tellers, ATM, mobile device, remote deposit scanner or by mail before our cut-off time, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after our cut-off time or on a day that is not a business day, we will consider the deposit as being made on the next business day that we are open. Our cut-off time for branches will be the closing time of the branch, but no later than 10:00 p.m. ET. The cut-off time for PNC Bank ATMs, a mobile device and a remote deposit scanner is 10:00 p.m. ET. The cut-off time for non-PNC Bank ATMs is 3:00 p.m. ET. Deposits made through our night depository after 6:00 a.m. ET may be processed on the next business day.

Availability varies depending on the type of deposit and is explained below.

Checks drawn on banks located outside of the United States are not subject to this availability Policy. Please inquire regarding availability at the time you make such deposits.

Initial $100 of Your Deposit
The initial $100 of any deposit will be available on the evening of your deposit to pay checks or items that are presented to us that evening for posting. The balance of the $100, if any, will be available on the first business day after the business day of your deposit for all purposes. The remaining balance of your total deposit will be available according to the availability provisions for such deposits as otherwise stated in this Policy. (Please see exception noted in “Special Rules for New PNC High Yield Savings Account’s Opened Online” in this Policy.)
Same Day Availability
Funds from the following deposits are available on the same business day as the day of their deposit:
- All cash deposits made to a PNC Bank teller and PNC ATMs equipped with currency validation technology
- Wire Transfers
- Electronic deposits
- Check deposits approved using PNC Express Funds

Note: Following is our general funds availability policy; however, please refer to our "Large Dollar Deposits" section below for availability of deposits that equal or exceed $50,000 and to the "Special Rules for New Account Holders" section for availability of deposits for new account holders, and "Special Rules for New PNC High Yield Savings Account Opened Online" section.

Next Day Availability
If you make a deposit of checks or money orders before the cut-off time on a business day that we are open, funds from your deposit of checks or money orders will be available as follows:
- Checks or money orders drawn on PNC Bank will be available on the evening of your deposit to pay checks or items that are presented to us that evening for posting. The remaining funds will be available on the first business day after the business day of your deposit for all purposes.
- All other deposits of checks or money orders will be available on the first business day after the business day of your deposit for all purposes.

Large Dollar Deposits
If your total deposits of checks, excluding the items listed in the “Items Excluded from Large Dollar Deposit Calculation” section later in this Policy, on any one business day, prior to our cut-off time, equal or exceed $50,000, then, the initial $100 of any deposit will be available on the evening of your deposit to pay checks or items that are presented to us that evening for posting, an additional $100 will be available the first business day after the business day of your deposit for all purposes, and any remaining funds will be available the second business day after the business day of deposit for all purposes.

As an example, if your total deposit equals or exceeds $50,000:

Special Rules for New PNC High Yield Savings Accounts Opened Online
When you open a new High Yield Savings account through PNC Online Banking, we will place an initial hold on the account for a period that will not exceed 5 business days, beginning with the business day on which your online application is completed (or next business day if application completed on a non-business day). Deposits made during this period will not be available during this period for any purpose. When the initial hold is removed from your account, funds from your deposits, including deposits made during the initial hold period, will be available according to the other provisions of this Policy.

Special Rules for New Account Holders
For purposes of this Funds Availability Policy a “new account holder” is defined as a customer who does not have a PNC Bank checking account that has been open for more than 30 calendar days. If you are a new account holder, the following rules will apply when a deposit is made during the first 30 calendar days your account is open. All deposits not discussed in this section will be available as described elsewhere in this Policy.

A. Funds from travelers checks deposited with a special deposit ticket and funds from deposits outlined as items “f” through “j” in the “Items Excluded from Large Dollar Deposit Calculation” section above, and $100 from deposited checks or items will be available on the first business day after the business day of your deposit for all purposes.

B. Funds from checks will be available on the second business day after the business day of your deposit for all purposes.

After the new account period has ended, funds from your deposits will be available according to our general policy.

 Longer Delays May Apply
Funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:
- We believe a check you deposited will not be paid
- You deposit checks totaling $50,000 or more on any one business day
- You redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months
- There is an emergency such as a failure of communications or computer equipment

We will notify you of the delay in your ability to withdraw funds for any of the reasons listed, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. In this case, funds from the deposit of checks will usually be available no later than the fifth business day after the business day of your deposit for all purposes.

Deposits at Non-PNC Bank ATMs
If you make a deposit at an ATM that we do not own or operate, which are those not branded as PNC Bank, funds from any deposits (cash or check) will be available the fourth business day after the day of your deposit for all purposes. This rule does not apply at ATMs that we own or operate.

Other restrictions are set forth in the Electronic Funds Transfer Disclosure Statement Brochure.

Refusal of a Deposit
We continue to reserve the right not to accept deposits. In some circumstances, items unacceptable for deposit, such as a mutilated check, may be processed as collection items.

Accelerated Availability
If you make a deposit of checks or money orders on a business day that we are open, we may make part of your deposit available to you sooner than otherwise stated in this Policy. The balance of your deposit will become available according to the other terms of this Policy.

Endorsement
It is important that you place your endorsement carefully on the back of all checks you are depositing. A 1 1/2 inch area has been designated for your endorsement. Please ask your PNC Bank customer service representative about proper placement of your endorsement. If our endorsement is illegible because you have endorsed the check in the wrong location, you will be liable for any resulting losses.

Your Responsibility
You agree that PNC Bank may deduct the amount of a deposited check from your account balance if PNC Bank receives notice that the check has not been paid. PNC Bank may make this deduction even if the unpaid check has not yet been returned to the Bank. You agree that PNC Bank may charge an unpaid check against your account even if PNC Bank could claim reimbursement for the check from the bank on which the check was drawn or from some other bank. You agree that PNC Bank may charge a check back even if the charge results in an overdraft.

If you have any further questions about this Funds Availability Policy, please contact your local branch or call our toll-free customer service line at 1-888-PNC-BANK (1-888-762-2265).
SUBSTITUTE CHECK POLICY DISCLOSURE

SUBSTITUTE CHECKS AND YOUR RIGHTS
(IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT CONSUMER CHECKING AND MONEY MARKET ACCOUNTS)

What is a substitute check?
To make check processing faster, federal law permits banks to replace original checks with “substitute checks.” These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of a substitute check states: “This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check.” You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check.

Some or all of the checks that you receive back from us may be substitute checks. This notice describes rights you have when you receive substitute checks from us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original checks or to electronic debits to your account. However, you have rights under other law with respect to those transactions.

What are my rights regarding substitute checks?
In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your account (for example, if you think that we withdrew the wrong amount from your account or that we withdrew money from your account more than once for the same check). The losses you may attempt to recover under this procedure may include the amount that was withdrawn from your account and fees that were charged as a result of the withdrawal (for example, bounced check fees).

The amount of your refund under this procedure is limited to the amount of your loss or the amount of the substitute check, whichever is less. You also are entitled to interest on the amount of your refund if your account is an interest-bearing account. If your loss exceeds the amount of the substitute check, you may be able to recover additional amounts under other law.

If you use this procedure, you may receive up to $2,500 of your refund (plus interest if your account earns interest) within 10 business days after we received your claim and the remainder of your refund (plus interest if your account earns interest) not later than 45 calendar days after we received your claim.

We may reverse the refund (including any interest on the refund) if we later are able to demonstrate that the substitute check was correctly posted to your account.

How do I make a claim for a refund?
If you believe that you have suffered a loss relating to a substitute check that you received and that was posted to your account, please contact us:
• By phone at 1-888-PNC-BANK (1-888-762-2265) or, at 1-800-531-1648 (TT)
• Write us at: PNC Bank/Adjustments, P7-PFSC-02-C, 500 First Avenue, Pittsburgh PA 15219
• Or email us at www.pnc.com. Simply log on to Online Banking (user ID and password, necessary) and select Message Center to send us a secure message
You must contact us within 40 calendar days of the date that we mailed (or otherwise delivered by a means to which you agreed) the substitute check in question or the account statement showing that the substitute check was posted to your account, whichever is later. We will extend this time period if you were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances. If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your claim in writing within 10 business days.

Your claim must include:

- A description of why you have suffered a loss (for example, you think the amount withdrawn was incorrect);
- An estimate of the amount of your loss;
- An explanation of why the substitute check you received is insufficient to confirm that you suffered a loss; and
- A copy of the substitute check or the following information to help us identify the substitute check: account number, check number, amount of the check, date the check was paid or posted to your account, the reference number for the check (if known), name of the person to whom you wrote the check, and any other pertinent information.

Disclosures of your rights and obligations
1. Consumers’ Liability for Unauthorized Transactions (excluding verified unauthorized Non-PIN transactions. See special rules for these transactions below)

Contact information for reporting lost or stolen cards is provided at the end of this statement.

Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your card and/or Personal Identification Number (“PIN”) has been lost or stolen or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your checking or savings accounts to which you have access, plus your maximum overdraft line of credit or the balance in any other account connected to your account for overdraft protection. If you tell us promptly after you learn of the loss or theft of your card or an unauthorized transaction, you will not incur any loss or liability if someone used your card or made a transfer without your permission. Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the transfer if you had told us in time.

a. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

b. Our business days include every day except Saturday, Sunday and a federal holiday.

c. If you believe your card or PIN has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your checking or savings account without your permission, call the phone number or write to the address shown at the end of this disclosure statement.

2. Special Consumer Liability and Protection Rules for Verified Unauthorized Non-PIN Transactions:

If your statement shows Non-PIN transactions using your Debit Card that you did not authorize or if you believe your card has been lost or stolen, tell us at once in order to prevent further misuse of your card. If we investigate the transfer and determine that it was not authorized, you will not incur any loss or liability.

Contact information for reporting lost or stolen cards is provided at the end of this statement.

Disclosure of types of available transactions and limits on transfers

a. Pay for purchases
b. Pay bills.

4. There are maximum limits on the amount of total ATM withdrawals, money transfers or purchases you may make using your card in any calendar day. Additionally, you may be able to withdraw cash only in certain multiples, as indicated at each ATM. Where we observe that the number of transfers exceeds the above limits, we will contact you for corrective action. 6. Contact us if you plan to travel and will be using your PNC Visa Debit Card outside the USA.

Disclosure of charges for automated teller machine transactions
You may be charged a fee by PNC when you use an ATM not owned by PNC. In addition, you may be charged a fee by the financial institution, ATM operator and/or any network used to make a transaction. Furthermore, you may be charged a fee for a balance inquiry even if you do not complete a fund transfer. Refer to the Consumer Schedule of Service Charges and Fees, which may be amended from time to time, for information related to charges imposed by PNC for these services or the right to use these services.
Disclosure of right to receive documentation of transfers
1. You can get a receipt at the time you perform a transfer with your card.
2. If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you can call the phone number shown at the end of this disclosure statement to find out whether or not the deposit has been made.
3. You will get a checking or money market account statement monthly. You will also get a monthly savings account statement unless there were no transfers to or from your savings account in a particular month. In any case, you will get the savings account statement at least quarterly.
4. For passbook savings accounts with ATM access, you will receive monthly statements for any month in which an electronic funds transfer occurs; otherwise you will receive a statement for these accounts quarterly. You will be provided with a quarterly statement in connection with passbook savings accounts without ATM access unless you have requested we not send a statement.

Disclosure of charges for transfers or right to make transfers
There are charges for certain card transactions or the right to perform such transactions. These charges are explained in the Consumer Schedule of Service Charges and Fees, which may be amended from time to time.

Disclosure of right to stop payment of preauthorized transfers
If you have told us in advance to make regular payments out of your account, you can stop any of these payments. Here’s how:
1. Call the phone number or write to the address shown at the end of this disclosure statement in time for us to receive your request 3 business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made. Be sure to tell us the name of the person or company to whom the payment is scheduled to be made and the amount of the payment you wish to stop. If you call, we may also require you to put your request in writing and get it to us within 14 calendar days after you call. You will be charged for each stop-payment order you give in accordance with our current Consumer Schedule of Service Charges and Fees. If a payment is made to the payee/merchant electronically, and the funds have already been deducted from your account, it is not possible to stop payment. Likewise, if payment is made to a payee/merchant via check and the check has already been cashed by the payee/merchant, you may not stop payment.
2. If you order us to stop one of these preauthorized recurring payments 3 business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your direct losses or damages.
3. You understand that you may not place stop payment orders on any transfers originated by use of a card except for arrangements made with merchants or payees for recurring payments.

Disclosure of right to receive notice of varying amounts
If these regular payments may vary in amount, we or the person you are going to pay will tell you 10 days before each payment when it will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.
Disclosure of bank's liability for failure to make transfers
If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount in accordance with the General Provisions section below, we will be liable for your direct losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance:

a. If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer;
b. If the transfer will go over the credit limit on your overdraft line, if you have one;
c. If the transfer will exceed the limitations on your savings or money market account;
d. If the ATM where you are making the transfer does not have enough cash;
e. If the terminal or system was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transfer;
f. If circumstances beyond our control (such as interruption of telephone service or telecommunications facilities, fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken;
g. If you have not provided us with complete and correct payment information, including without limitation the name, address, account number and payment amount for the payee on a bill payment;
h. If your operating system was not functioning properly; or
i. If the transfer cannot be made because of legal restrictions affecting your account.

Disclosure of account information to third parties
We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:

a. Where it is necessary for completing transfers;
b. In order to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party such as, for example, a credit bureau, a merchant or another financial institution;
c. In order to comply with government agency or court orders, or investigations or examinations by our bank regulators;
d. In the investigation or prosecution of alleged fraudulent activity concerning your accounts;
e. If you give us your permission; or
f. As you may have otherwise authorized in other agreements with us.

In case of errors or questions about your Electronic Transfers
Call the telephone number, write us or send an email to the address shown at the end of this disclosure statement as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

(1) Tell us your name and account number (if any).
(2) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
(3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days (for verified unauthorized Non-PIN transactions, within 5 business days), after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 calendar days, (for PIN point-of-sale transactions and/or Non-PIN transactions up to 90 calendar days) to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your account within 10 business days (for verified unauthorized Non-PIN transactions, within 5 business days) for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not provisionally credit your account or we may reverse any credit previously made to your account. (NOTE: Please see the Special Rules for New Accounts and Special Rules for Foreign Initiated Transactions sections below for additional information.) We will tell you the results within 3 business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will reverse any credits made and will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

Special Rules for New Accounts:
For errors involving new accounts, we may take up to 20 business days to provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error and we may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question.

Special Rules for Foreign Initiated Transactions:
For errors involving foreign initiated transactions (transfers initiated outside of the United States), we may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question.

General provisions
1. The signing of a signature card, the electronic acknowledgement of your agreement to the terms and conditions of the agreements provided on the “Terms and Conditions” page of the online account application, your request for a card, the use of a card, the use of Online Banking services and/or the use of Online Banking through Quicken® shall mean that you agree to the content of this Agreement and to any modification thereof. Any such modification shall become effective and be binding 15 calendar days (or such later time if required by law) after notice of the modification is posted in our banking centers, or by such other method of notice as we may deem appropriate or as may be specifically required by applicable law.

2. If you enter into an agreement with someone other than us to have direct deposits made into your account or to have automatic payments made from your account, we will not be obligated to you to accept such deposits or to make such payments and may at our option reject them unless we have received notification in advance satisfactory to us regarding such deposits or payments. Certain types of deposits, including but not limited to checks that are second endorsed or are not properly endorsed, cannot be accepted at our ATMs. We reserve the right to reject such deposits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we reserve the right to refuse or to return all or part of a deposit at any time.

3. Final credit of all transfers, deposits and payments made by you at an ATM is subject to verification by us of the actual amounts deposited and paid (including conversion rates for foreign currencies), notwithstanding the figure shown on the receipt you received at the time of deposit or payment. Funds from any deposits (cash or check) made by you at the ATM will be available to you pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Consumer Funds Availability Policy, which is included in your account information package. Where available, any bill payment made at an ATM shall be subject to verification of the amounts deposited for payment, and shall not be delivered to the payee until such verification is completed, which, along with the time necessary for transmittal of the payment to the merchant, may take up to 3 business days.

4. Other loans made to you as a result of transactions by you at an ATM (such as an advance from your overdraft line of credit, if you have one) are repayable, together with all charges due on such advances or loans, as provided in the terms and conditions of your loan agreement, as it may be amended from time to time.

5. Your card may, but need not, be retained by any ATM or merchant if:
   a. The PIN is wrong after repeated attempts;
   b. Your card was reported lost or stolen;
   c. Your card was closed for misuse;
   d. All of your accounts have been closed;
   e. Your card expired, was replaced or not used within a two-year time period;
   f. The machine is not operating properly.

6. We may refuse to issue a card to you, or to reissue a card to you if you have previously had one. Each card issued by us remains our property, is not transferable and may be cancelled, revoked or limited by us at any time without notice. In the event of cancellation or revocation, your card must be surrendered to us upon demand. If you attempt to use your card after it has been cancelled or revoked it will be retained. For your protection, your card also may be retained in situations where it appears to us that there is or may be a danger of loss, theft or unauthorized use.

7. No electronic fund transfer may be made and no transfer that you attempt to initiate will be completed if your card is damaged, has expired, has been cancelled or revoked or is retained for any reason or your account has been closed.

8. Upon receipt of a request for authorization of a transaction that you will make with your card, you authorize us to deduct the amount immediately from the available balance in your account. You agree that you may not place stop payment orders on any transaction originated by use of a card except for arrangements made with payees and/or merchants for preauthorized recurring payments.

9. You may not be able to use your card to make withdrawals from or transfers between your accounts, or make deposits to your savings account in the following cases:
   a. Your checking account is overdrawn;
   b. You have reached, or your request would exceed, the withdrawal or transaction limits referred to above in the Disclosures of Your Rights and Obligations;
   c. You exceed your overdraft line of credit or otherwise are not in good standing with regard to the use of your card.

10. We reserve the right at any time and without notice (except as may be required by the federal Electronic Fund Transfer Act) to eliminate any or all of the services that currently are available to you by use of your card or other electronic methods or to add new services.

11. To the extent applicable, the Account Agreement for Personal Checking, Savings and Money Market Accounts ("Account Agreement") with us also applies to any consumer electronic fund transfers made from or to your accounts by use of your card or other electronic method. This Agreement will control, however, in the event of any conflict between the Account Agreement and this Agreement.

12. We may, from time to time, limit the type, number and dollar amounts of any transfers made by use of a card, notwithstanding the amount in your accounts, and terminate or suspend the operation of any or all cards, ATMs or merchants, without notice unless otherwise required by law or regulation.

13. You agree to promptly notify us in the event your card is lost or stolen, or if you suspect any unauthorized use of your card. YOU AGREE NEVER TO WRITE YOUR PIN ON YOUR CARD OR KEEP ANY WRITTEN RECORD OF IT IN PROXIMITY TO YOUR CARD.

14. If you have contracted with us for automated bill payment services, please refer to the Online Banking Transfer Funds and PNC Payment Services, Online Bill Pay Services Agreement and/or Online Banking through Quicken® Agreement.

15. Where you have authorized any other person to use your card in any manner, your authorization shall be considered by us to be unlimited in amount and manner and will be effective until you have notified us in writing that you have revoked the authorization, and have taken all other necessary steps to revoke it.

16. The card which we have issued to you in connection with your personal checking or savings account, and which is subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, may be used only for personal purposes, and may not be used for any business transfers. If any of the accounts used with your card are changed from personal to business purposes you must notify us immediately, and surrender your card.

17. You agree the card that we have issued to you will not be used for any illegal transfer(s).

18. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws and regulations of the United States of America and, to the extent that state law applies, the laws of the state where our principal office is located.

OVERDRAFT PROTECTION AGREEMENT

This Agreement provides the terms and conditions of the PNC Bank Overdraft Protection service. Please read this Agreement and keep it with your important account information.

1. I/we, have designated certain of my/our account(s) as PROTECTING ACCOUNT(S) for the purpose of adding overdraft protection service, and have authorized PNC Bank to apply this service to my/our designated PROTECTED ACCOUNT. If PNC has determined that sufficient funds are not available in the PROTECTED ACCOUNT to cover account withdrawals, PNC Bank will automatically transfer funds or credit from the PROTECTING ACCOUNT(S) as follows:

   A. If there are sufficient funds to cover some but not all of my/our overdrafts, PNC Bank will exercise its discretion (i) in paying some but not all of the items and (ii) to pay items drawn on the PROTECTED ACCOUNT in any order convenient to PNC Bank. PNC Bank’s general practice is to first add deposits (credits) to my/our Account, and then subtract withdrawals (debits) from my/our Account. Transactions are ordered according to the date and time the bank receives notice of the transaction. PNC Bank receives notice of transactions at various times throughout the day, and not necessarily in the order in which they occur. If multiple transactions are received at the same time, or are grouped together and contain no time, then the items will be processed in order of sequence number or, if no sequence number is available, largest-to-smallest dollar amount. If PNC Bank does not have information that allows it to determine the exact time notice of a transaction was received, PNC Bank may assign an approximated time to that transaction. Debit card purchases will be posted according to the date and time provided by the merchant. Because processing times vary, the time PNC Bank receives notice of a transaction may differ from the time shown on a receipt. The order of payment may affect the total number of items paid and/or returned and/or the amount of overdraft fees and returned item fees (NSF) charged.

   B. At such time or times that PNC Bank determines that the PROTECTED ACCOUNT has insufficient funds, PNC Bank will transfer to the PROTECTED ACCOUNT an amount sufficient to pay all items creating the insufficient balance together with any applicable PNC Bank fees, first from funds or credit available in the first designated PROTECTING ACCOUNT, and, if an overdraft still exists, from funds or credit available in the second PROTECTING ACCOUNT, if a second PROTECTING ACCOUNT has been designated. If the PROTECTING ACCOUNT is a line of credit or credit card account, the amount transferred will be rounded upward to the next whole dollar. In rare circumstances, the amount transferred may overdraft the PROTECTING ACCOUNT if transactions are posted to the PROTECTING ACCOUNT after the transfer amount has been determined.

   C. For Virtual Wallet, Virtual Wallet with Performance Spend and Virtual Wallet with Performance Select customers with overdraft transfers from the Reserve or Growth account, the automatic transfer amount will be the amount of the Overdraft in the Spend account. For overdraft transfers from a PNC Visa or Line of Credit, the minimum transfer will be $50.00.

D. This is not an extension of credit and PNC Bank shall not be obligated to transfer funds to the PROTECTED ACCOUNT if such a transfer will exceed the funds or credit available in the PROTECTING ACCOUNT(S), as designated and determined by the agreement(s) which governs the PROTECTING ACCOUNTS.

E. Balances for all types of PROTECTING ACCOUNTS are available for nightly processing of items, for transactions processed by branch tellers, and for point of sale or ATM overdrafts online authorizations.

F. I/we may from time to time contact PNC Bank to request a modification of this agreement by adding or substituting a different account as PROTECTING ACCOUNT 1 or 2. PNC Bank reserves the right to accept such modification of this Agreement or to require that a new Agreement be executed.

2. I/we understand that if any PROTECTING ACCOUNT is a line of credit or credit card account, any transfers that are made from such an account for purposes of overdraft protection will be subject to the terms of the line of credit agreement or credit card agreement, as applicable, including all rules, fees and other disclosures made with the agreement as well as any applicable fees set forth in PNC Bank’s Consumer Schedule of Service Charges and Fees or Virtual Wallet Features and Fees. Any items from the PROTECTED ACCOUNT, which are returned, will be subject to PNC Bank’s regular returned item fee (NSF) charge. If the PROTECTING ACCOUNT is a credit card account, this credit card may be a PNC branded card issued by a third party card issuer, and I authorize PNC Bank and such issuer to share information necessary to process my overdraft protection transactions and administer this overdraft service. I authorize PNC Bank to update the credit card account number for my PROTECTING ACCOUNT if such issuer provides PNC Bank with a new credit card account number for me/us.

3. I/we understand that if any PROTECTING ACCOUNT is a checking, savings or money market deposit account, any transfers that are made from such an account for purposes of overdraft protection will be subject to the terms of the Account Agreements for Personal Checking, Savings and Money Market Accounts, or Account Agreement for Your Virtual Wallet, and PNC Bank’s Consumer Schedule of Service Charges and Fees, or Virtual Wallet Features and Fees, together with any other disclosures provided in connection with the account. I/we understand that transfers made from any checking, savings or money market deposit account will count towards any applicable transaction limitations set forth in the Account Agreement for Personal Checking, Savings and Money Market Accounts, or Account Agreement for Your Virtual Wallet, including limitations on preauthorized transfers which are limited by federal regulations to preauthorized transfers (including telephone and automatic transfers) each statement period. Any items from the PROTECTED ACCOUNT, which are returned, will be subject to PNC Bank’s regular returned item fee (NSF) charge.

4. This authorization may be modified and/or terminated at any time by PNC Bank upon notice to me/us and I/we understand that it will terminate automatically without notice if all PROTECTING ACCOUNTS are closed. If any PROTECTING ACCOUNT is a Home Equity Line of Credit account, then this authorization with respect to such account may not be terminated by PNC Bank except in accordance with my/our Home Equity Line of Credit account agreement.
